

Warning re: unsolicited share offer

The Company has been advised that certain broking and corporate advisory firms have been promoting and selling shares in the Company in an unsolicited manner in the UK. Shareholders are strongly advised to ensure that they only conduct transactions with firms who are authorised to conduct investment business in the UK by the Financial Services Authority. Information on whether any particular firm is so authorised can be obtained from <http://www.fsa.gov.uk/register/home.do>
